

Pholcus phalangioides Longbodied cellar spider

High counts of:
 45 - Carteret - 2023-11-02
 30 - Hyde - 2023-07-14
 25 - Carteret - 2018-02-05

Status		Rank
NC	US	NC	Global

ORDER:ARANEAE INFRAORDER:Araneomorphae
 FAMILY:Pholcidae

TAXONOMIC_COMMENTS: First described as Aranea phalangioides Fuesslin, 1775 (gender masculine), 30 years later, in 1805, Walkenaer erected the genus Pholcus, with phalangioides as its type.

DISTRIBUTION_COMMENTS: Common in buildings worldwide.

HABITAT: Dark, often dank locations: dark corners, under shelves, in cellars, caves, mines and garages