

Larinioides patagiatus an orbweaver

High counts of:
 2 - Cumberland - 2021-04-21
 1 - Yancey - 2016-06-28
 1 - Gates - 2001-08-24

Status	Rank
NC	US	NC	Global

ORDER:ARANEAE INFRAORDER:Araneomorphae
 FAMILY:Araneidae

TAXONOMIC_COMMENTS: Pronounced lar-i-nee-OY-deez. Formerly genus Nuctenea

DISTRIBUTION_COMMENTS: Uncommon throughout North Carolina, more common towards higher elevation, sometimes locally numerous. Found from Georgia north to the northern United States and all of Canada. Adults can be active all year, most common from June to September.

HABITAT: forest edge at higher elevations. Less associated with open water habitats preferring higher and drier sites.

OBSERVATION_METHODS: Visual observation, sweep netting, beat sheets.