

Acrolophus spilotus Spotted Grass Tubeworm

FAMILY: Tineidae SUBFAMILY: TRIBE:
 TAXONOMIC_COMMENTS:

FIELD GUIDE DESCRIPTIONS:
 ONLINE PHOTOS:
 TECHNICAL DESCRIPTION, ADULTS:
 TECHNICAL DESCRIPTION, IMMATURE STAGES:

ID COMMENTS:

DISTRIBUTION: A southern species commonly found in Florida and the Gulf states, A. spilotus can be found along the southern coast of North Carolina. As of 2023, it has only been documented in Brunswick and New Hanover counties.

FLIGHT COMMENT: Please refer to the flight charts.

HABITAT:

FOOD: The hosts appear to be undocumented.

OBSERVATION_METHODS:

NATURAL HERITAGE PROGRAM RANKS:

STATE PROTECTION:

COMMENTS: