ID COMMENTS:

DISTRIBUTION: Currently we only have a single site record for the species from Richmond County.

FLIGHT COMMENT: Please refer to the flight charts.

HABITAT: Our only site record is a "bean dip" in the Sandhills: a relatively mesic Longleaf Pine flatwoods that is rich in legumes and other forbs.

FOOD: Jeff Niznik reared a larva from False Boneset (Brickellia eupatorioides). We are unaware of any other host records.
